

OCTARIUM

choir request and booking form

General Information

Octarium are a small, four part singing for pleasure group based in Merseyside, each member having several years choral experience in their own right. Over half of the group are accomplished and experienced pianists and/or organists, and span a range of choirs in and around Merseyside. Three members of Octarium are also choral directors running their own individual choirs.

Octarium came into being in 2005, created to perform one or two pieces at a local church concert. Today, the group finds itself increasingly in demand to sing at many different concert venues, with an ever-growing repertoire.
